VOICE OF BUSINESS NOW BEING HEEDED

Address of President Wheeler at Convention of U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—More than 500 delegates, representing every state in the union, were gathered at the opening of the convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States today, when President Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago, in his address, pictured the vast foundation on which the organization is based. The chamber now comprises 50 per cent of the business organizations of the country, he said, built on a membership of over a quarter of a million.

The voice of American business had found expression that could not be denied, Mr. Wheeler declared, and the death knell of lobbying in Washington had been sounded.

"When American business wishes to speak," he said, "it can go to congress or to the executive and say, 'This is the opinion of American business on this particular subject.' This is a new day, when our methods are being reorganized and the organized forces of labor and agriculture and of commerce meet here in Washington, and for the first time the voice of the opinion of each may have its place in framing the laws under which all shall live."

President Wheeler pointed out that one of the six referendum votes taken by the chamber of commerce had found its way to the statute books in part, at least, in the new currency law. Legislatures, he said, welcomed such expressions of opinion, but he warned his hearers not to lose patience, to give the legislatures full opportunity to assure themselves that it was the expression of American business, not the voice of a few selfish interests which spoke.

Out of courtesy to the California delegation a report of the patents' committee was adopted recommending that no further effort be made to amend the Kansas law for protection of foreign exhibitors at the San Francisco exposition. Many feared that exhibitors might be frightened away from the fair if the law were disturbed.

The employees of the Z. C. M. I. celebrated with a dance at the Odette last night as an annual reunion. A large number of the employees of the store and their friends were in attendance.

The Mothers' club of the Grant school will meet at the school building on Friday. A matter of particular interest to mothers throughout the city is to be discussed and an address will be given by Mrs. D. Kipp, president of the Mothers' club of the Salt Lake high school.

Section 2 of the Ladies' Aid society of the Immanuel Baptist church will meet with Mrs. E. Ben Brown, 642 South Sixth East street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

HOLIDAY PATRONS ASK BETTER SERVICE

For the purpose of asking the street railway company to provide better and quicker service on the Holiday line during the rush morning and evening hours, a committee representing patrons of the line has called on the street car officials. At a recent meeting of the committee the district affected it was decided that the present service is inadequate. Cars are now run every half hour in the morning, every hour during the day and every forty-five minutes in the evening.

WILL BEQUEATHS $50,000 ESTATE

The will of the late Cora Hooper Eldredge, who died in this city recently, was filed in the probate division of the district court yesterday. It bequeaths the whole of a $50,000 estate to Ernest R. Eldredge, husband of the deceased. A Ernest R. Eldredge accompanied the will.

CHANGE METHOD OF CORNER ASSESSMENTS

City Commissioners Deny Rooming House License to Emma Barnum After Public Hearing.

The ordinance changing the method of assessment of property for sewer improvements so as to eliminate double taxation of corner property was passed as amended by the city commission yesterday.

Hereafter corner property so situated that sewers are built on either side of it shall be exempt from taxation for sixty feet on one side when it has already been assessed in full for a sewer improvement on the other side.

On motion of Mayor Samuel C. Park the commission denied a rooming house license to Emma Barnum, 78 East Second South street, as a result of a public hearing given the applicant the previous day.

HOW TO STRAIGHTEN STREET IS PROBLEM

Commissioners Take Up Matter of Joining Two Sections of Eleventh East Street.

How to overcome the crookedness of Twelfth South street, where it is supposed to intersect with Eleventh East street but does not, was discussed at length by the city commission yesterday. F. S. Ferstrom, land agent, was instructed to confer with E. M. Ashton, representing property owners in the district, to see what could be done about it. A plan was suggested by which the street could be straightened by the intersection of another street takes up its course, running east toward the state prison. How to eliminate these few rods and bring the intersections together presents a difficult problem.

A delegation of property owners appeared before the commissioners to see what could be done about it. It is understood that owners of the property that stands in the way of straightening out the street are willing to sell out reasonably in order that the defect can be remedied.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them." — Mrs. SAMIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
